

Agenda for Creating A Flood Ready Community Training

Friday, May 19, 2017

University of Delaware Paradee Center

8:30 am

Check in & Coffee

9:00

Welcome and Introductions

Institute for Public Administration

Module 1: Risk and Hazard Concepts

Danielle Swallow, DNREC Delaware Coastal Program

Module 2: Climate Trends and Future Projections for Flood Hazards in Delaware

Danielle Swallow, DNREC Delaware Coastal Program

Module 3: Recommended Strategies for Reducing Vulnerability and Exposure

Greg Williams and Mike Powell, DNREC Flood Mitigation Program

10:30 – 10:45

Break

10:45

Module 4: Community Engagement and Resiliency Planning

Danielle Swallow, DNREC Delaware Coastal Program

Module 5: Resources and Examples to Help Your Community be Flood Ready

Phil Barnes, UD Institute for Public Administration

Noon – 1:00

Lunch, Resource Demonstration, and Networking

Stay for lunch from 33 West while you explore tools and resources available for your community, or dig into questions sparked by the morning presentations in small group discussions with speakers.

Presentations and Course Materials will be made available online at:

<http://de.gov/floodreadycommunityresources>